

Come Sail Away with the Maryland Mayflower Society!

Cocktails and Conversation: Museum Walk & Private Lunch

RSVP Today (click link here) for our exciting events on Saturday, Feb. 15th

The Maryland Mayflower Society is pleased to present a very special 2-part event to kick off 2025! The first GSMD Mayflower virtual talk explores Prof. Justin Jacobs' new book: Plunder? How Museums Got Their Treasures. Prof. Jacobs teaches courses on Chinese and Japanese history, UNESCO World Heritage sites, and the history of museums and archaeology. He has authored several books, including The Compensations of Plunder: How China Lost Its Treasures. He is instructor for the Great Course series on UNESCO World Heritage sites. The questions raised during his GSMD Mayflower lecture will be a theme throughout the day, and Prof. Jacobs will be personally available to the Maryland Society. His virtual talk is available online at Lecture Series – General Society of Mayflower Descendants.

10am-12 noon: Mayflower Tour of Glenstone Modern Art Museum (Free)

Get excited for a Gemba-style walk through Glenstone, a collection of iconic pioneering art and architecture. Whether you are an art lover or not, Glenstone's beauty is stunning, a place of reflection conveniently located at 12100 Glen Road, Potomac, MD 20854. Driving directions are here: Glenstone - Google Maps Enjoy a journey together, walking with your Pilgrim cousins. Our Group Reservation is under Mayflower Society. Gallery selections are found here: Iconoclasts: Selections from Glenstone's Collection | Glenstone

12:30pm-2:30: Mayflower Lunch at Glenwood's Rockville Tower Oaks ($45)

We will continue our time together, by driving (roughly 15-20 minutes) to Glenwood's located at 2000 Tower Oaks Blvd, Rockville MD 20852. Glenwood's - GLENWOOD'S DINING Our esteemed Governor, Dan Earnshaw, has reserved a private gathering room for cocktails and conversation with Prof. Jacobs, who is available to sign copies of his new book. Your special Mayflower Menu is a beautiful salad appetizer, beef, chicken or pasta main, with soda, coffee & tea included. Cash bar. Vegetarian, vegan and gluten free are also available upon request.

On behalf of The Maryland Mayflower Society, Governor Earnshaw cordially welcomes you for a day of arts and culture together on Saturday, February 15th. This Valentine's Saturday, get ready to fall in love sharing experiences with your Pilgrim cousins – see you there!

RSVP Form

TO REGISTER FOR THIS EVENT BY MAIL, PLEASE INCLUDE YOUR CHECK WITH RSVP FORM BELOW BY FEBRUARY 8TH

Glenstone Modern Art Museum and Lunch at Glenwood's Rockville

If you are interested in attending, complete and SUBMIT this form and either mail by check made payable to the Maryland Mayflower Society to our Events Chair, Ann Portell. Address: 11640 Log Jump Trail Ellicott City, MD 21042 Phone: (703) 969-6857 Email: Events@MarylandMayflower.org

++

My membership number is _____ I intend to bring ___ # guests with me

Names of guests: _____

_____ I attend BOTH Glenstone Museum & Glenwood's Lunch ($45 per person)

____ I will attend the Glenstone Museum 10am walking tour, ONLY (Free)

____ I will attend the Main Event Lunch at Glenwood's Rockville at Tower Oaks Rockville restaurant, ONLY ($45 per person)

Paying by Check? All checks should be postmarked by Tuesday, February 4th.

Kindly make your check payable to: Maryland Mayflower Society

Mail your checks directly to: Ann Portell, Events Chair

11640 Log Jump Trail

Ellicott City, MD 21042

Payment online via Paypal extended through Feb 8th.

Any Questions? Please send all inquiries to email events@marylandmayflower.org or call Ann directly at (703) 969-685 ocializing together on Feb 15th. Please RSVP reserve your spot today!